See you in San Diego!
40th Annual Meeting of the Society for Neuroscience
November 13–17
Director Neurosciences Institute

Maine Medical Center seeks a professional to provide administrative direction to all aspects of the MMC Neuroscience Institute, including strategic planning, operational planning, and budget development, working closely with the Medical Director, neurologists, neurosurgeons and other physicians and staff to design and carry out major program initiatives.

- Minimum master’s degree in healthcare related enterprise or equivalent experience of greater than seven (7) years in relevant health care settings
- Knowledge of project management and administrative practices in hospital/healthcare systems, with 5-7 years of progressively responsible administrative work experience
- Experience and understanding of the complex management challenges of a multidisciplinary, multi-specialty clinical program
- Proven ability to lead work teams in an acute healthcare setting

Maine Medical Center is the only Level I ASC verified Trauma Center in Maine and the largest teaching hospital in Northern New England. Situated on the coast of Southern Maine, Portland offers a diverse population, exceptional cultural, recreational and historical attractions with the sophistication of a large city and the feel of a small town. With all of this waiting for you in Portland, recently voted the most livable city in America, it’s time to come see how Maine Medical Center can be a better, stronger move for your career and your life.
