The Section of Anatomy at Southern Illinois University School of Dental Medicine is seeking applicants for a full time (12 month) tenure track faculty position in Neuroanatomy at the Assistant/Associate Professor level. Applicants must have a Ph.D. Postdoctoral training and prior teaching experience in the anatomical sciences is desirable. Teaching duties are shared within the Section which includes courses in Gross Anatomy, Neuroanatomy, Histology, and Oral Biology. The candidate is expected to direct the Neuroanatomy course and participate in additional teaching. Candidates are also expected to actively participate and collaborate in current ongoing dental research areas supported by the School. Available research equipment is significant and includes instrumentation for confocal microscopy, scanning electron microscopy, RT-PCR, gel electrophoresis, and HPLC. Academic rank and salary are commensurate with experience and qualifications. The school is located on a historic campus, 15 minutes from the campus of Southern Illinois University Edwardsville and 30 minutes from St. Louis. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Applicants should submit a letter of interest with brief statements of teaching experience and preferences and research experience and interests related to dental medicine, a curriculum vitae, and three letters of reference to: Dr. Ann Boyle, Dean, School of Dental Medicine, Southern Illinois University, 2800 College Ave., Alton, Illinois 62002-4900 or by e-mail at aboyle@siue.edu. SIU-SDM is an EEO/AA employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. SIUE is a state university - benefits under state sponsored plans will not be available to holders of F-1 or J-1 visas.
