Washington, DC!
November 12–16, 2011
Neurotechnology Faculty Position
Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU)

The Department of Biomedical Engineering in the School of Medicine at OHSU invites applications for an Associate or Full Professor position with primary research interests in the area of neurotechnology, neural engineering, and cognitive systems. We encourage applicants interested in advancing basic biomedical research as well as clinical care through monitoring, assessment, diagnosis, rehabilitation and treatment of disease, especially in target areas of aging, neuro-developmental and neurological diseases. Other areas of interest include brain-computer interfaces, computational modeling of sensory-motor and neuro-cognitive systems, and application of imaging techniques to neural engineering problems.

The successful candidate must have a doctoral degree (PhD, MD or MD/PhD) and experience commensurate with their appointment. Applicants must have demonstrated potential for excellence in the relevant areas and must have a well-established research program with a record of extramural funding. He/she will be expected to maintain an independent, extramurally funded research program at OHSU.

Submit the application online at http://www.ohsu.edu/xd/about/services/human-resources/. Please reference IRC31840. For questions please contact Jana Smilanich-Rose at smilanic@ohsu.edu.

OHSU is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, minorities, disabled persons, Vietnam era and disabled veterans are encouraged to apply. OHSU is a smoke free workplace.

Recommend The Journal to your librarian.

The Journal of Neuroscience publishes the best in neuroscience research 50 times a year — nearly 1,500 articles annually — and is the number one cited journal in the field. (Impact factor 7.178)

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Journal of Neuroscience institutional subscription provides:

• Unlimited access to the official journal of the Society for Neuroscience
• Free access to the back issues of The Journal, dating back to 1981
• HTML and PDF formats
• Access to articles as soon as they are released, each Wednesday, 50 times a year

Users can sign up for CiteTrack, Abstract Browser, eTOC alerts.

For the 2011 subscription year, we are implementing tiered pricing rates. Tiered pricing allows us to offer subscription rates that are congruent with each of our subscribers. Five levels of tiered pricing are available for academic institutions, nonprofit organizations, medical facilities, and corporations. To see a breakdown of all pricing, visit www.jneurosci.org/subscriptions/cost.dtl.

Online institutional subscriptions are available for all institution types, including:

Academic institutions
Associations and societies
Clinical and teaching hospitals
Corporations
Higher education colleges
High schools
Nonprofit organizations
Public libraries

The History of Neuroscience in Autobiography Series
Edited by Larry R. Squire

Outstanding neuroscientists tell the stories of their scientific work in this fascinating series of autobiographical essays. Within their writings, they discuss major events that shaped their discoveries and their influences, as well as people who inspired them and helped shape their careers as neuroscientists.
