J. Neurosci's Permissions Policy

October 2, 2014

Starting in January of 2010, The Journal of Neuroscience adopted a License to Publish form to replace the previously used copyright form. The License to Publish form allows authors to retain the copyright to their article while granting the Society for Neuroscience a 6-month period to exclusively publish the article.

After six months, anyone may use the material for non-commercial purposes under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-Share Alike 3.0 Unported License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/3.0>). This agreement allows data and text mining, use of figures in presentations, and posting the article online, as long as the original article is attributed.

Authors need NOT contact the journal to obtain rights for any non-commercial reuse their own material so long as authors provide attribution to the place of original publication and, for the first six months after publication, refrain from making the work publicly available. Authors are automatically granted permission to:

- Reuse the article in print collections of their own writing.
- Present a work orally in its entirety.
- Use an article in a thesis and/or dissertation.
- Reproduce an article for use in the author's courses.
- Reuse a figure, photo and/or table in future non-commercial works.

For any non-author uses of the work, please follow the "get permissions" link in the sidebar to the right of any full text article in J. Neurosci. This link will take you to Copyright Clearance Center, which processes these requests for J. Neurosci.

If you are requesting permission to reprint with a nonprofit publisher, please email a detailed request directly to jnpermissions@sfn.org. In most cases, these requests are granted at no cost.

Anyone requesting to reprint with a for-profit publisher, there will be a charge for each figure you reuse. We do not process these fees directly, but you can request permission online through the Copyright Clearance Center website.

Please contact the J. Neurosci's Central office at jnpermissions@sfn.org with any questions.
