

Correction: In the article “Spatially Selective Auditory Responses in the Superior Colliculus of the Echolocating Bat,” by D. E. Valentine and C. F. Moss, which appeared on pages 1720–1733 of the March 1, 1997 issue, the authors would like to correct the last sentence of the legend to Figure 12. The sentence should read, “2D cells are indicated by the dark bars; 3D neurons are shown by the light bars.”
