Boston University | Position in Integrative Neurobiology

The Department of Biology invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in integrative neurobiology, spanning from the cell and molecular biology of neurons to animal behavior.

Research themes of particular interest include:

- 1) integrative analyses of the formation, composition, plasticity, and function of neural circuits in studies of development, innate and learned behaviors, and disease states of the nervous system;
- 2) the mapping of brain activity in relation to behavior using cutting edge methods and technology;
- 3) the molecular and cellular mechanisms that determine the patterning of neural circuit wiring. Applicants must have a PhD in a relevant field and are expected to have postdoctoral experience and a strong publication record.

Responsibilities include establishing a research program with extramural funding, teaching at both the graduate and undergraduate levels, and participating in Biology and Neuroscience graduate programs. The successful candidate will join a strong and growing interdisciplinary Neuroscience research community at Boston University and will be offered newly renovated laboratory facilities, a competitive salary and start-up package.

Review of applications will begin 1 November 2014.

Please use AcademicJobsOnline <https://academicjobsonline.org/ajob/jobs/4437> to submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statements of research and teaching interests, three representative reprints, and arrange for three letters of reference to be submitted through the same website.

NeurOnline is an SfN members-only online community where you can share great science, network, forge collaborations, and keep in touch—anytime, anywhere—within a trusted forum. As with the SfN annual meeting and The Journal of Neuroscience, NeurOnline's content and discussions will be generated by members, for members.

- Discuss emerging scientific findings
- Explore new tools and techniques
- Network year-round within the global community, nearly 42,000 members worldwide
- Share experiences and receive or provide mentoring on different career paths, stages, and challenges
- Get involved in public outreach, from Brain Awareness and science teaching to advocacy

NeurOnline will help you advance your science and career on your schedule.
